Haute Interiors

It's hard to compete with the views outside our windows, but that doesn't mean we shouldn't try. Here are some eye-catching accent pieces that will put you on the "inside" track to enhancing a favorite room.

Vintage "Morano" Balloon Lamp: Once serving private clients only, designer Maloos Anvarian is now sharing her vision with the world. This one-of-a-kind lamp oozes personality. Available at DWM Interiors, SFDC. Price range: $4,320-$6,480.

Ash Leaf Maple Globe: Philip Mouthrop's vessels stress the natural grains and colors of the wood. He uses native southeastern woods and woodturning methods handed down through generations. Available at Gump's. Price: $6,500.

Odegard "Char" Carpet: From Stephanie Odegard's original collection, Tropical Feathers, inspired by the colors and textures of two exotic parrots; translated into refined, hand-knotted rugs. Price range: $3,000-$8,000.

Luxury Designer Throw: From an award winning collection, Bodmer's Dark T is hand spun from a mix of natural yarn colors, creating asymmetrical stripes in subtle tones. Made of 100% baby Alpaca, ultra rare and ultra soft. Available at Beckmann MooreYaki, SFDC. Price: Starting at $650.

A.B.U. Chair: Also by Maloos, the "All Balled Up" chair looks surreal, but it's surprisingly comfortable, masterfully marrying the past with the new and unexpected. Price range: $7,395-$8,000.
