1960S ENGLISH OIL ON CANVAS MALE NUDE PORTRAIT PAINTING BY VICTOR HUME MOODY

DESCRIPTION
A striking oil on canvas portrait in the Classical style of a male nude seated upon a draped table by Victor Hume Moody from England c.1960. The artist’s skillful brushwork and excellent choice of colour bring a sense of immediacy and lifelike feeling to this painting. Please use the zoom feature offered on our website to see a closeup view of the individual components of this work. Mr. Moody was born in London in 1896 and died in 1990. The artist studied under William Rothenstein at the Royal College of Art and was an elected member of the Royal Society of British Artists. One of the artist’s most important attributes was his ability to capture a single moment on canvas as though the scene was being viewed for the first time.